BAKE OFF: The Northampton Energy Centre proposed for Westbridge will bake waste rather than burn it at high temperatures, however protesters say it still fits into the EU definition of an incinerator

Power struggle

BY STEVE SCOLE
news@hpnorthants.co.uk

Northampton could soon have a futuristic addition to its skyline.

An energy centre has been proposed for St James at the Westbridge depot. It will generate power by baking unrecyclable waste.

Rolton Kilbride, the Northants construction firm behind the plan, has already begun consultation and is keen for the area to benefit from the scheme through cheap energy and profit distribution through a community interest company.

However an opposition group has been formed called No Incinerator In St James which opposes the plan, saying it fits the EU definition of an incinerator and raising concerns about pollution and public safety. Tony Clarke, a former Labour MP now a Green Party member is a spokesman for the group.

Meanwhile Brian Binley, a long time political sparring partner of Mr Clarke as a former Conservative MP, is supporting the plan.

Your Choice Of Internal Finish

Option 1: UPVC Shiplap Cladding

The most popular internal choice for customers who are looking to solve temperature problems with their existing conservatory. The bright white shiplap internal system gives a stunning, maintenance free, light bright and airy finish to your room. With U-Values of below 0.15, the insulation will ensure there are no more Summer days that are too hot and no more Winters that are too cold.

UPVC Finish

Option 2: Plaster Ceiling Finish

The insulation system is fitted with adequate cross ventilation preventing condensation or sweating of the structure. Air vents are also fitted within the system for that extra peace of mind. Following careful installation the roof is finished off with plasterboard and a two coat skim finish. Once dried, you can apply a decorative finish of your choice. This type of finish brings the room to being part of the house again.

Editor's Letter

It's the business of making our lives more interesting...

They are preparing a beer at Towcester Mill Brewery called Podium. The story goes that a staff member from Silverstone added the hops to the vat (please forgive incorrect terminology) and the beer will be on sale at the track and brewery in time for the British Grand Prix.

And why not? I am sure there is plenty of branded motor racing merchandise on sale that is essentially shaped plastic imported from China with the right logo on. The best chance of it having some connection with the magic of the event is that the guy who pressed the button on the machine that churned it out might also like motor racing.

In fact, imagine life without businesses like Towcester Mill Brewery adding a bit of texture and salt to existence.

I was in a room full of them last week at a Made In Northamptonshire meeting. It was hosted by the brewery – hence there was a little tale to tale – but the room was full of other little tales from county producers and businesses.

There were caramel makers from

' There was a lemony sauce that smothers your taste-buds with a clean, fresh heat ,'

Irthingborough who added chilli and now Chimoulis is winning prizes. It's not just that: there was a lemony sauce that seduces you with a kind of restrained sweetness and then smothers your taste-buds with clean fresh heat. So good.

The Tea Lab comprises a lady and her twin daughters from Collingtree who concoct bespoke tea blends.

The Sausage and Cider visionary Crispin Sibley was also there, spreading the news about the forthcoming Towcester Food Festival.

It was great to meet them because they make our lives more interesting and we should do all we can to support and encourage them.

The Mallows Company, fronted by Rachel Mallows and Anna Murby, organises the MIN meetings and also the Carlsberg Food and Drink Awards.

If you want to give a food and drink producer or restaurant a little boost then nominate them for something. Find out more at: northamptonshirefoodanddrink.co.uk

Cobblers fan's Lego Sixfields

BY STEVE SCOLES
steve.scoles@hpnorthants.co.uk

A Cobblers fan has paid a unique tribute to his team becoming league champions and the passing of a much loved friend by unveiling his own Lego version of Sixfields Stadium.

Iestyn Pocock from Wellingborough received a flood of appreciative comments when he posted the pictures on Facebook in the Hotel Enders public group for Northampton Town fans.

And he has dedicated the model to the memory of his friend Rob Dunkley, a devoted fellow Cobblers fan who died suddenly last year.

He said: "I started about four weeks ago and it probably took me about 14 hours of building time. There's over 1000 bricks but I've no idea on the exact number.

"My seven-year-old son Rhys helped build it and built the south stand for me. I've been a fan of Lego since a child but I discovered the world of AFOL (adult fan of Lego) after watching a TV programme at Christmas so decided I wanted to make some MOC's (Lego talk for 'my own creation').

"I first built a model of my house to go into the Lego City me and my boys have built and then needed a new project so decided to see if I could build Sixfields.

"We've got lots of Lego around the house including a large city display.

"I'm hoping to see if I can get this displayed at Sixfields for a game for all Cobblers fans to see.

"I've been a fan for 25 years and never thought I'd see us win a league especially after the troubles we had this season off the pitch. I've dedicated my model to my friend Rob Dunkley who sadly passed away before Christmas and has missed the end of this remarkable season."

Saddling up to help fight crime

Lawrence John speaks to the county's only PCSO who patrols her beat on horseback Riding high in the saddle and patrolling the territory might be a line in any cheap dime American novel.

But in this case it can be used when referring to policing in rural Northamptonshire.

For in the county there is one Police Community Support Officer (PCSO) who takes to her beat on her horse. Natasha Fountain is the only PCSO who patrols the north of East Northamptonshire on horseback with nine-year-old Cody.

PCSO Fountain said: "This (patrolling on a horse) was first trialed on January 28, 2015, to see if it would work and how the community would perceive it."

And it seems to have gone down very well as out of the 90 PCSOs in Northants PCSO Fountain is the only one who rides a horse.

Speaking about her and Cody, Sector Inspector for East Northants, Julie Mead, said: "PCSO Natasha Fountain and Cody have been a phenomenal success. "They've increased visibility and reassurance in the community and are local celebrities in Oundle.

"They offer community reassurance and aid crime prevention.

"They've made a noticeable impact on traffic calming on the local roads.

"Cars slow down for them and are more likely to then slow down for other horse and riders too.

"They also go off-road and help tackle poaching and hare-coursing, improving trust and confidence in our rural communities."

Giving her thoughts on this different way of policing in the county, PCSO Fountain said: "By doing it this way I have a lot of strings to my bow.

"I have done some town centre patrols but mainly we patrol the bridleways and byeways in the north of East Northants.

"I keep my eyes open for

On patrol: PCSO Fountain and Cody

fly tipping, rave sites and reporting gates which could be a danger for other riders as if I am struggling to get through then other riders will as well.

"I also keep an eye out for poaching and hare coursing."

PCSO Fountain, who has been a community support officer since 2009, enjoys what she does and relishes her role in the communities she patrols including, Easton on the Hill, Harringworth, Deene, Titchmarsh, Collyweston and Oundle.

She added: "My role as a PCSO leads itself to working like this. I am the eyes and ears of the community. Being out on horseback means I can see different things and be able to video them on my body camera so if anything happens then I can radio for assistance."

If you're interested in becoming a PCSO call a recruitment advisor on 01604 439155.

Robert paid price for his 'kindness'

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

A homeless man and woman who were offered a place to stay by a Good Samaritan have been convicted for their part in his death.

Mary Cash, 39, and Karl Pound, 51, were convicted of manslaughter and murder respectively on Friday at Northampton Crown Court.

On October 8 last year both were welcomed into 54-year-old Robert Chester's house in Rothersthorpe Road, Northampton.

Robert was later stabbed eight times and then set on fire in an attempt to destroy evidence. The fire service discovered Robert's body.

Both Pound and Cash had initially pleaded not guilty, blaming each other for the murder.

After the first day of the trial Pound pleaded guilty to killing Robert.

Cash, who had denied the charge of murder, was later found guilty of manslaughter by the jury.

Detective Inspector Louise Hemingway, who led the investigation, said: "It appears that an act of kindness by Robert was a fatal mistake."

Cloudy2Clear Announce Trusted Trader Partnership

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. 'Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.'

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough

& Corby areas and manager Trevor Skidmore agrees that this approach is a major factor in its success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Jacks Hill near Towcester was the location for a gathering of classic cars, lorries and motorbikes on Sunday. The well-known transport cafe on the A5 Watling Street is the location for the annual event attracting enthusiasts from around the Midlands.

One lad who came along on Sunday was Cody Canvin and his dad Mark, a breakdown recovery driver, who built this little lorry over six years.

HEATED DEBATE: the proposed new energy centre would be located at Westbridge

Is this too big for our town?

BY STEVE SCOLES
news@hpnorthants.co.uk

Images showing the impact of the planned Northampton Energy Centre on the town's skyline have been released.

Rolton Kilbride, the Northamptonshire firm handling the proposal, is keen to emphasise that pictures released by the No Incinerator In St James pressure group are nothing to do with them and that although a large building is involved it will be attractively designed.

Brian Binley, who will head the Community Interest Company, said: "I believe this energy centre will be of massive benefit to Northampton and its citizens over a long period of time. Its benefits are enormous, including cheaper power for our public buildings and some of our businesses in the Enterprise Zone. It will also use any profit from the sale of power to enhance the built environment. It will also provide cheap heat for up to 2,000 homes in areas where considerable fuel poverty exists."

"These are just a few of the many benefits that will accrue to the town. It is vital that we take a balanced view of this issue and that is exactly what the planning authorities will do over a period of months following receipt of the planning application on 29th April. In the meantime, it behoves us all to tell the truth and not mislead the citizens of Northampton in any way and that's what I intend to do. This is too important a matter to do otherwise."

Mr Binley, a former MP for Northampton, said the name of the pressure group opposing the plan - No Incinerator In St James - was misleading because the process that creates energy in the centre will be 'baking'.

A Community Interest Company, which includes the Rev Richard Coles and University of Northampton Vice Chancellor Nick Petford on its board, will be set up to help ensure the community has a say in the running of the centre and where the benefits are distributed.

No Incinerator In St James created their own images to give a sense of the scale of the project

Rolton Kilbride released a statement saying:

Energy created would be offered at a reduced price locally and be distributed directly to specific locations in the town such as major local businesses and amenities.

Heat generated at the site has the potential to be used by residents in the town. Heat would be available at a cheaper rate than the National Grid and made available via a district heating network.

The Community Interest Company, local residents and stakeholders will have a direct say over how energy generated at the plant is distributed and over how profits are reinvested.

Emissions will be strictly controlled throughout the process so they will fall well within the EU permitted limits. Traffic will also be monitored and strictly routed to ensure it does not pass through residential areas.

The company has leafleted homes in the area and also held a meeting at the Dodridge Centre to explain their plans. They said feedback was positive.

Tony Clarke, also a former Northampton MP, is behind the No Incinerator In St James group. He said an energy centre was not the answer to Northampton's power needs.

He said: "Small renewable Solar/Wind power units can work but these need to be either individual or community. The answer really lies in advancing the renewables option and in advances in battery technology. These guys are just using the word 'green' as a marketing tool when it is nothing like it. We need a circular not linear economy before we run out of resource!"

At a meeting at the Thomas A Becket pub on Tuesday night, residents who are against the plan reaffirmed their worries about pollution, lorry movements and public safety.

Ex-teacher jailed for indecent pics

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

A former vice principal at Brooke Weston Academy in Corby has been jailed for two years for making and distributing abusive images of children.

Mark Willimott, 41, was sentenced last week at Northampton Crown Court.

Willimott pleaded guilty to four counts of making and distributing indecent images of children and possessing extreme pornographic images, following an investigation by the force's POLIT (Paedophile On Line Investigation Team).

Detective Inspector Richard Tompkins, who led the investigation, said after the sentencing: "I am pleased by the sentence handed down by the court today. Mark Willimott was in a position of trust and today's sentencing goes to prove that those who download and make abusive images of children will be fully investigated and brought to justice regardless of their profession.

"I'd like to take this opportunity to thank the senior management team from Brooke Weston Academy who fully cooperated with us throughout the investigation. "A key aspect of the enquiry was to minimise the risk of harm to children. I'd like to stress that our investigation found no evidence to suggest any of the images involved Brooke Weston Students."

BLOGGER OF THE WEEK

Against the power plant

Cllr Gareth Eales

This week's Blogger of the Week is Labour County Councillor Gareth Eales who represents the Dallington Spencer ward on Northamptonshire County Council

As a councillor for Dallington Spencer I have heard both sides of the argument and captured views from residents and I am opposed to this Gasification plant.

I have not knee-jerked to form my own opinion, I have listened to residents, the 'expert' opinions and have analysed how the Community Interest Company (CIC) would operate and can come to no other conclusion at the moment than opposition.

The contrasting arguments about pollution and emissions leaves me unclear as to what would be the reality, so on that basis I have to veer on the side of caution. There remains traffic congestion concerns, already a massive issue in St James, so that of course needs to be a major worry. In respect of how the CIC will work, to me the only real beneficiaries seem to be big business and the two local councils. Contrarily, what is ring fenced for the local community groups in St James is peanuts and almost insulting. The people of St James are asked to make sacrifices and accept this plant in their local area and they get the crumbs off it?"

There remains too many unanswered questions, the extent of the public consultation & info sharing has been a concern. I am not intransigent, I'm open to persuasion should concrete reassuring information become available. In the immediate term I think it is essential the further views of residents is sought, which I will be actively doing.

Your views

Readers react to enforcement officers issuing 70 fixed penalty tickets in Northampton in their first week of work

Here is how our readers on Facebook reacted:

PAM CRANE: I'm amazed how many people drop litter in front of their children so they grow up and think it's acceptable. I was brought up not to and I know my children would never do it either. Some people think by dropping litter they're keeping the borough workers in a job

STEVE DINES: How can these fixed penalties be actually be issued? Your not obliged to give your name and address to them. Unlike parking tickets when your details can be obtained from the car registration number via the DLA.

Readers react to the latest images of the gasification plant proposed for St James in Northampton:

CESSIE WAYMAN: St James residents were told about the 'heating to local homes' last year but the company admitted that they would have to dig up the streets and your old boiler won't do, you'll need a new one.

Now Rolton Kilbride, at a later meeting this said heat won't be available locally to private houses but only to specific housing! And the new uni, the Angel project & maybe the hospital.

But to be honest who in their right minds would put this monstrosity slap bang in the middle of the lowest part of town belching out toxins.

It will not just effect St James but the whole of town, depending on the wind direction.

There's housing & schools all around the site, loads of young children already living in an area with high air pollution.

And as for the new illustration on your article, making the whole prospect 'prettier', that chimney is nothing like as tall as it'll be in real life.

And what about the hundreds of lorries full of waste going in & out all day & night!

The risks of fire & explosion... honestly the mind boggles that anyone can think this is the right sort of industry to build on that site.

IN ADMINISTRATION: The Castle in Wellingborough

Theatre's future is put in spotlight

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

June is set to be a big month in deciding the future of The Castle Theatre in Wellingborough.

On June 29 a meeting of Wellingborough Council's resources committee will be held to discuss options for the venue.

This follows the decision made by councillors last month to terminate the contract with The Castle Wellingborough Ltd, the company which operates the facility, and put in place an exit management plan until the end of September.

It led to the company, which employs 38 people, being put into administration.

It is the intention of the joint administrators to fulfil the 2016 programme at The Castle which consists of:

- 250 educational and workshop sessions
- 59 community performances
- 56 professional live shows
- 32 film screenings
- 25 private and business functions
- Eight visual art exhibitions by local artists

Joint administrator, Gary Pettit, said: "We are all working hard to find a solution to the task that confronts us whereby the future of the theatre can be secured in the long term.

"It is very encouraging the council are fully supportive and share the aims of the joint administrators in terms of protecting this centre of culture." Following its decision the council asked to hear from groups or individuals who could run the Castle on a day-to-day basis.

And it says ideas from people who are interested in saving the venue along with comments and suggestions are arriving every day.

The council is still asking residents for their views and will also be taking the advice of industry experts.

If you would like to tell the authority how you see arts and entertainment provision in the borough in the future email info@wellingborough.gov.uk.

A group called Keep The Castle Safe has been set up on Facebook calling on people to support the venue.

The case of... missing out on the breakfast of champions

Lawrence John

To find more blogs and video diaries from Northants Herald & Post journalist Lawrence John visit our website. @LawrenceJohnHP

They were lined up on their own in what looked like a special section in the aisle.

I stood there looking at them in a mild state of disbelief, tut-tutting under my breath and rolling my eyes.

Rows and rows of proper breakfast cereals and then these flash Harry's right at the end.

They could be dubbed the advertising men's offspring.

These were the meals no one would consider eating in this shape or form but you are being sold something which makes breakfast glamorous and dare we say, let us dare and let us say... exciting.

These were what could be described as breakfasts you would eat or drink on the go.

You would grab a nutritious bite on the bus, in the car, on the bike, on the train, on the tram, on foot or hurtling through space at warp factor 12 to get to the office on time.

These are the fast foods for fast people, those in a hurry and on the move, the movers and shakers.

They would be the ideal candidates for the open the pot, pour in boiling water, stir and eat.

You would think this would be too slow and it should just be breakfast in a pill.

I am sure it is on the way and coming to a breakfast table near you.

Drink, swallow and digest all the great taste of breakfast in one juicy pill, yummy.

Or they would just drink breakfast in a bottle or eat the healthy cereal bar.

If they do they are missing out.

Don't forget this fact: Breakfast is the most important meal of the day.

You do not get a phrase made famous when someone says that was a great start to the day that was 'the breakfast of champions' by putting it in a bottle, pot or a bar.

I read a report which said if you want to lose weight then skip breakfast.

Yeah, that is right, let's start the day starving, all of those weight loss believers will be starving marvin before 9am and when the sandwich van comes around they will be the perfect buyer for the sausage and bacon roll.

Why not? I am having an early lunch and I did not have breakfast. Good grief Charlie Brown...

And for a limited period, visitors can benefit from discounted early bird prices.

The Silverstone Classic is the largest festival of classic cars in the world and is a truly fantastic celebration of historic British motor racing.

In addition to the excitement on the world famous Grand Prix track, the action-packed weekend also includes full paddock access, impressive track parades and displays from more than 100 car clubs featuring more than 10,000

FEEL GOOD FACTOR

Good living, getting out there and getting on with it in Northants

Nicci is helping the planet

A Northants employee from the Raunds McDonald's on London Road has been highly commended at the company's UK-wide Planet Champion Award in recognition of the positive impact they have made on the environment and to their local community.

Planet Champion Nicci Wride was applauded for her commitment to reducing the amount of litter in the town.

Nicci has been instrumental in organising various community litter events, in particular, the 'Raunds Cemetery Clean Up' which is now in its third consecutive year.

The clean-up is now an annual event.

Win is the tonic

A Northamptonshire based craft-gin producer has secured a £150,000 prize after winning HSBC's Elevator Pitch - a competition for small and medium sized enterprises (SMEs).

Warner Edwards Distillery will use the money to invest in new equipment and staff to increase production and fulfil larger orders.

The business is also planning to build a botanical garden next to its distillery in the village of Harrington to grow herbs and spices to flavour its gin.

Tom Warner, Founding Partner of Warner Edwards, said: "This is a real game-changer for our business and will enable us to turbo-charge our growth plans. It means being able to invest. This win gives us the confidence to move forward."

Keep the wheels turning

Project Cycl-ops drew a lot of attention from people who attend the recent 'Open Roads' event held at Rockingham Circuit by Northamptonshire Police.

The police started this initiative six months ago, aimed at young offenders, giving them the opportunity to learn basic bike repair techniques with the intention of learning new skills to boost future employment prospects.

Mick George Ltd is one company which has been donating redundant bicycles received at its waste transfer stations to help aid the longevity of the project.

Sensory garden to inspire Lewis

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

People across Northamptonshire have rallied with gusto to help a 12-year-old boy.

Everyone's generosity has helped improve the life of Lewis Herbert from West Hunsbury.

When he was three months old, Lewis was diagnosed with West Syndrome which later developed into Lennox Gastaut Syndrome (LGS).

It is an extremely rare form of epilepsy which results in him experiencing seizures on a daily basis and restricted his development.

Thanks to the efforts of his dad, Gary, 39, and Lewis's mum Lexi, 36, plus a huge amount of help from people across the county, the youngster now has a £24,000 wheelchair accessible/sensory garden. This is on top of a sensory room for which an impressive £15,000 was raised in 2015. An anonymous donor sent a cheque for £10,000.

HAPPY CAMPER:
Julian Clary

Join Julian for a joyful night of merry mincing

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

Julian Clary is celebrating 30 years as a camp comedian with The Joy of Mincing.

And Julian, also an author, TV and radio star, has so much to tell. The ups and downs of his sordid love life, the true and heart-stopping account of how he saved Dame Joan Collins' life, and don't start him on the perils of his DIY electrical home enema kit...

His show will come to Northampton's Royal & Derngate on Saturday, April 30 at 8pm.

On stage Julian will proudly wear his well-deserved MBE (Mincer of the British Empire). He says it was the last thing he expected to receive when he knelt down in front of Prince Charles in the scullery at Buckingham Palace...

And because Julian is so giving he will be handing out honours to a lucky few in the audience too.

Remaining one of the country's best loved entertainers, Julian's popularity has lasted across three decades.

With a variety of credits to his name, Julian is not only a comedian but presenter, author and established pantomime star. His colourful career saw him win Celebrity Big Brother in 2012.

Last year, Julian added children's author to his long list of credits, publishing the delightfully amusing The Bolds, followed by the release of the second instalment of the series, The Bolds to the Rescue - another helping of hilarious fun and mischief with Britain's wildest family of hyenas.

Tickets to watch Julian's comic masterclass are £24 and can be booked by calling 01604 624811 or visiting www.royalandderngate.co.uk

11.22.63

I cannot say the Fox television channel would be high on my list of where to find good television programmes.

But there is one being broadcast on the network on Sunday nights, the title is 11.22.63. For us in Great Britain it should read 22.11.63 which is the date in history when JFK got shot.

The series which is based on Stephen King's novel concerns Jake Epping (James Franco) who takes on the responsibility of entering a time portal which takes him back to 1960.

The school teacher in the 21st century has to go back in time to discover if there was a conspiracy to assassinate John F Kennedy.

As a time travelling adventure there are some interesting rules such as no matter how long he is away from 2016 he would only be gone for two minutes.

Also if Jake is getting too close to changing history then different things happen which conspire to work against him.

What will Jake discover? How will it all end? We can only speculate.

I hope it continues to live up to its early promise.

Lawrence John

Exclusive Spider is super

The new McLaren 675LT Spider was revealed at the end of 2015 as the latest chapter in the history of the iconic 'Longtail' name, and was the fifth new model debuted during a truly defining year for McLaren Automotive.

Strictly limited to only 500 examples worldwide which sold out in just two weeks, it is only the second model to wear the LT badge.

It arrived less than a year since the first model in nearly 20 years resurrected the name, and was in response to significant customer demand.

The 675LT Coupé focused on lightweight, enhanced aerodynamics, increased power and track-focused dynamics, and this limited-run model quickly sold out before the first deliveries commenced.

Sharing these key characteristics, McLaren Automotive has added the most focused, fastest and exhilarating open top model to ever wear a McLaren badge, further strengthening the 'LT' brand.

The 675LT Spider stays true to the spirit of its iconic predecessor with aerodynamically optimised, dramatically enhanced styling that results in 40 per cent more downforce than the 650S Spider which it sits alongside in the McLaren Super Series. The main focus for the 675LT Spider is clear: to deliver maximum performance, engagement and excitement.

To achieve this, weight has been reduced by 100kg through the increased usage of carbon fibre – and by lighter components throughout.

Under the skin sits the heavily-revised 3.8-litre twin turbo V8 powertrain from the Coupé sibling, ensuring performance figures are worthy of the LT badge. The power output and torque figures remain unchanged, with 675PS (666bhp) delivered at 7,100rpm and 700Nm (516lb ft) available between 5,000–6,500rpm.

The changes to the powertrain saw more than 50 per cent of the components replaced to ensure optimised levels of power, torque and drivability.

These include new, more efficient turbos, detail design changes to the cylinder heads and exhaust manifolds, new camshaft and lightweight connecting rods, and a faster-flowing fuel pump and delivery system. Acceleration from 0–62mph takes just 2.9 seconds, and 124mph is achieved in 8.1 seconds.

Only 500 examples of the 675LT Spider will be built, alongside the 675LT Coupé, and all are sold.

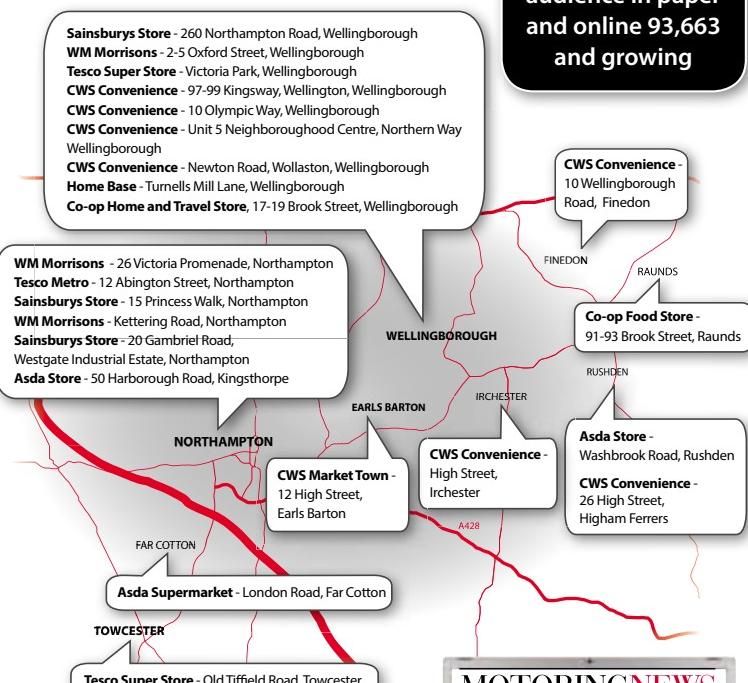

These are the most exclusive models in the Super Series, and will be produced in the McLaren Production Centre, alongside the McLaren Technology Centre, near Woking, England.

Toyota Avensis

Take a look inside. . .

The Toyota Avensis gets another facelift, but this time the effects go deeper than superficial styling updates.

The engines have been upgraded, the suspension and steering improved and there's a redesign for the interior. It cements the Avensis' position as one of the classiest cars in its sector.

As you probably guessed, the engine changes haven't focused on making the Avensis more dynamic or exciting to drive, instead concentrating on improving efficiency. The engine range comprises 1.6 and 2.0-litre diesels and the petrol options range from 1.6 to 2.0-litres.

The suspension basics remain much the same, with a MacPherson strut up front and slick double wishbones at the back, but both have been tweaked to improve ride and handling.

Steering feel and responsiveness have been improved by the use of a new intermediate shaft, a revised anti-roll bar and an increase in body shell rigidity through the use of a powerful urethane to bond the windscreen.

Toyota has also put more sound insulation into the Avensis, as well as fitting thicker rubber seals. The air con has even been made quieter. The cabin has been treated to some brightening up, with updated trim finishes and colour schemes. Toyota hasn't done things by halves here, with a redesigned instrument binnacle, the tacho and speedo being separated by a 4.2-inch colour TFT screen on some models.

The steering wheel, gear lever and switchgear have also been updated. Better consistency of typefaces and lighting are complemented by satin chrome highlights.

By improving efficiency and incorporating some seriously impressive technology, Toyota has forced the Avensis back into class contention.

When you have a car efficient enough to be able to put tax benefit-in-kind cash back in your pay packet and one clever enough to enable you to email, tweet and text on the move, you have one that's going to endear itself to plenty of people.

Could it be more exciting, both to look at and to drive? Well probably, but you can see why Toyota weren't keen to go too far and upset the legions of customers attracted by the sensible charms of previous models.

The New Tiguan Wins "Design Trophy 2016"

The new Tiguan wins "Design Trophy 2016". Every year the German special interest magazine Auto Zeitung presents this award to honour the most successful new automobile developments. The new Tiguan prevailed against 14 competitors in the "SUV" category. In September 2015, the second generation of the Tiguan celebrated its world premiere at the International Motor Show (IAA) in Frankfurt. It impresses with its completely new and elegant design that radiates power and authority. Compared with its predecessor, the new Tiguan has a longer (+6 cm), broader (+3 cm) and lower (-3 cm) appearance. Not least among the factors responsible for the implementation of these new dimensions is the use of the Modular Transverse Matrix (MQB). The result is an unmistakable SUV profile with distinctive proportions and a very dynamic design.

Suzuki is pleased to announce that global sales of Swift have now passed the five million mark, just eighteen months after the celebration of four million units. First launched in the UK in May 2005, more than 118,000 Swifts have been sold and it is the most popular model in the range, accounting for 36 per cent of the UK sales mix. Swift is a world strategic model that was first built in Japan in 2004 with production bases expanding the year after to Hungary, India and China. Production then commenced in Malaysia (2007), Pakistan (2009), Thailand (2012) and Vietnam in 2014. All European Swifts are made at Suzuki's established Magyar plant in Hungary. Across the globe, 11 per cent of Swift sales are in Japan, around 50 per cent in India and 19 per cent across Europe. Swift is on sale in 140 countries and has won more than 70 awards.

Town's leading lights roast the Red Devils

FOOTBALL

BY MATT WRIGHT

NORTHAMPTON TOWN

CRAWLEY TOWN

1

Sixfields welcomed back their champions on Tuesday night and it was to be two of the outstanding players in Northampton Town's glorious campaign that decided their match against Crawley.

Ricky Holmes and John-Joe O'Toole are two of the players you'd think would have no problems in League One next season and they both duly struck the goals that secured what was a deserved win.

There was always the risk of this being 'after the Lord Mayor's show' and halfway through, that looked to be the case before Town found another gear, as they have so often in this term.

The title is sewn up, but the Cobblers are still making records, as this was a 21st league game without defeat, which equals the club's best-ever run (although if you're feeling really churlish, it was a first win in five).

It also keeps alive the possibility off Northampton earning 100 points for the season, even though they will have to win their final three games to achieve this.

After emerging through Crawley's guard of honour, it took until just the third minute for the first opening to arrive for the Cobblers as John Marquis prodded Hoskins' low cross wide.

This didn't exactly precede a rip-roaring start with the game almost being played at pre-season pace – the sort normally expected from a game with not that much riding on it. Crawley were providing the odd threat with Gwion Edwards shooting wide from outside the box, but the hosts were dominating possession as Marquis and Holmes looked threatening.

The spark the game needed almost arrived after 35 minutes as a neat move that saw Danny Rose playing in Holmes down the right, with his cut-back finding Marquis, whose shot was deflected wide.

STAR MAN: Ricky Holmes celebrates putting Northampton in front from the penalty spot

But it at least raised the tempo, with the best chance of the half falling just before the break after a slip by Crawley's Andy Bond, with Hoskins going on to force a save out of visiting 'keeper Jack Rose.

The Red Devils almost had all 50 of their travelling support celebrating just over a minute into the second half after Rod McDonald failed to deal with a long ball, but Adam Smith did well to keep out Edwards' shot across goal.

Northampton heeded this warning and had won a penalty within a minute as Lanre Oyebanjo clumsily bundled over Nicky Adams and Holmes confidently did the rest from the spot.

Crawley's goal was then left shaking after Rose missed Holmes' cross with McDonald's fierce effort being diverted on to the bar from close range by O'Toole.

Northampton hit the woodwork again just four minutes later as Holmes free kick from out on the left drifted over the struggling Rose, with the bar once more coming to his rescue.

But the second goal finally arrived with ten minutes left as O'Toole found himself in the right place at the right time to turn in from a few yards after Holmes' corner wasn't cleared.

Crawley were to pull a goal back five minutes later as Edwards, one of the visitors' few attacking threats all night, whipped in a terrific free kick that left Smith a mere spectator.

Almost immediately, however, the Red Devils were reduced to ten men when Bond was rightly sent off for a poor challenge on Hoskins and despite a spirited finish from his teammates, the hosts held on.

Turnaround of Player of the Season O'Toole epitomises champions spirit of the Cobblers

GRIPPED BY THE COBBLERS

BY TOM REED

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

It was only a modest vote, 200 or so, by readers of this column for Northampton Town's Player of the Season. The winner was John-Joe O'Toole, the maverick midfielder whose turnaround mirrors the Cobblers'.

For player and club, there looked to be nowhere to go a year or so ago. O'Toole was shipped out to Southend United on loan at the same time as workers downed tools on the infamous Sixfields East Stand redevelopment.

With the shell of Northampton's unfinished stand slowly rusting, the career of the promising yet troubled O'Toole looked to be coming to a halt too.

Southend sent him back to the Cobblers and then Chris Wilder made the decision to transfer list the ex-Watford man at the end of the 2014-15 season. 'It's just not working' said Wilder, ruefully, of a player signed on a lucrative three-year deal.

O'Toole looked overweight and worse, his passion for the game was waning.

Yet, Cobblers boss Wilder took a calculated risk in starting the midfielder with two first names against Bristol Rovers in the opening match of the 2015/16 campaign. O'Toole nodded home the only goal of the game against his former club. He looked to be back in business.

However, O'Toole was benched for the next match and his early season campaign was one of being an unused sub and sometimes out of the squad all together. Wilder obviously chose to play hard ball while Northampton fans, loving a rogue, weren't fazed by O'Toole's black sheep act.

The Shoe Army had gone all out to welcome the player with 'John-Joe O'Toole day' at Mansfield considered to be the low point of his Northampton career when he was sent off for violent conduct.

Then came the rumbling of huge financial issues at Northampton Town, perversely yet par for the course for the unorthodox O'Toole, at a time when he finally began to assert himself as a first choice player.

John-Joe had a key role in the magnificent FA Cup win at Coventry, where Northampton and Sky Blue fans rattled buckets to save the Cobblers, the club indebted to over £10 million.

He then scored from a sensational well-worked free kick in the 4-3 win over Luton at Kenilworth Road. There was a glint in his eye once more, a talented individual playing with similarly talented team mates, a rebel with a cause, the club in severe trouble.

On Tuesday night, the Cobblers, Champions of League Two, dispatched Crawley Town 2-1 at Sixfields to make it 21 matches unbeaten. O'Toole was at the centre of things, notching his 12th goal of a hard-fought season.

'When he feels loved, he's a brilliant player' said a Bristol Rovers fan on social media after the match. In reality, Northampton's player of the season is finding that he is loved because he is a brilliant player. A footballer's footballer, the type with nonchalant skill that so many strive for.

Potter delighted to be finally playing again after injuries

Northampton Town midfielder Alfie Potter is hoping his injury problems are behind him after he made his first appearance of 2016 against Crawley.

Potter's previous appearance for the Cobblers came against Accrington on 28 December 2015, but the 27-year-old had been left side-lined for almost four months due to issues with his side and hamstring.

During that time, he has seen Northampton surge to promotion from League Two and clinch the title in the process and now he is hoping to play a full part in their remaining games.

Potter said: "It's hard to watch from the sidelines with everyone doing so well, but at the same time I'm delighted to be part of this club and even more delighted to be back playing."

"It was nice to get out on the pitch and enjoy the celebrations."

"You go through spells in your career where you do have a run of injuries for a year or two, so I'm hoping that's the end of it now and, like I said, I'm delighted to be back playing now in a winning team."

Potter's problems have restricted him to just 24 appearances for Northampton in what is his first season at Sixfields after signing from AFC Wimbledon last summer.

When asked what has been afflicting him, Potter said: "It's been unlucky, really – against Accrington I tore a muscle in my side and it's a bit unusual to tear a muscle in your side, I don't know how I done it."

"Then, when coming back, I picked up a hamstring injury and that's the one that kept me out the longest, but I've been fit for a while now and I've worked hard in training."

"I've just had to wait for my chance and I know there are only three games left now, but I just want to play as much as I can."

In their remaining games, Northampton have a chance to reach 100 points in a league campaign for the first time in their history – just to add to the list of records they have broken this season.

While manager Chris Wilder insisted after their game against Crawley that he was only focused on Saturday's match at Yeovil, Potter admitted reaching three figures is a goal Town's players would love to reach.

He said: "Since it was kind of certain and it would only need a couple more wins to get promoted, that's what we've been aiming for."

NEW START: Hoy driving for Algarve Pro Racing

SILVERSTONE

Olympic legend Hoy makes ELMS debut

Already a legend on two wheels, former cyclist Sir Chris Hoy is now trying to make a career for himself on four after he made his debut in the European Le Mans Series at Silverstone last weekend.

It didn't completely go to plan for the six-time Olympic gold-medalist, who was competing for the Algarve Pro Racing team in the four-hour race on Saturday, as he slid into the gravel at the start of Hangar Straight.

The Scot was able to rejoin the race, however, as his team eventually finished tenth at the chequered flag.

It was an event that was won in dominant fashion by the G-Drive Racing team of Harry Tincknell, Simon Dolan and Giedo van der Garde, who finished one minute and 35 seconds ahead of SMP Racing's Stefano Coletti, Julian Leal and Andreas Wirth.

The race also saw former goalkeeper Fabien Barthez take part, as he finished ninth as part of Panis-Barthez Competition, which he co-owns with Formula 1 driver Olivier Panis.

"It's always nice to win on our home track," said Dolan after the race. "We've had some bad luck at Silverstone in the past but we put it behind us today."

Panesar appears for Northants second XI

CRICKET

Northamptonshire's Monty Paneser has stepped up his comeback from shoulder surgery this week by appearing for the county's second XI against Leicestershire at Wantage Road.

Panesar rejoined Northants two weeks ago after securing his own funding to begin his second spell with them, six-and-a-half years after leaving for Sussex, and was able to pick up a wicket in his first competitive match for nine months.

The 33-year-old took 1-47 from 15 overs as Leicestershire were bowled out on the opening day, with the match also notable for wicketkeeper David Murphy and former Hampshire batsman Sean Terry both making centuries for the hosts in their first innings.

Tom Wood has said that Northampton Saints cannot afford to leave their season unravel following last weekend's damaging 30-24 defeat to great rivals Leicester Tigers.

The result effectively ended Saints' hopes of reaching the play-offs as seven points now separate them from the fourth-placed Tigers, but it is the teams behind them who will now be of concern.

With Harlequins only two points behind them in seventh, Northampton's place in next season's Champions Cup has yet to be secured with two games of the campaign left.

It goes without saying that failing to qualify for the top table of European rugby would be the biggest disappointment of all in what has been a testing campaign.

Wood said: "We have to get over it [the Leicester defeat] pretty quickly because there's a real danger of the wheels coming off and not making the top six, which would be an absolute tragedy for this club and a huge underachievement."

"We've got a week's rest now where we haven't got a game and we've got to sort ourselves out."

"We'll probably be hurting, we'll down tools and get some rest, mentally and physically, for the next few days and make sure we're ready for those big games."

Northampton's remaining Premiership fixtures are a home game against Bath and a trip to Gloucester and they will hope to be able to welcome some of their players back from what is a lengthy injury list.

Being knocked out of the Champions Cup in the quarter finals by Saracens could, in some way, be of some benefit to them as it has given them a weekend off for the first time since an intense season began in mid-October.

It will give the chance for some aching bodies to recover, particularly the ten players that were unavailable to them against Leicester along with Ahsee Tuala, who limped off in that game.

Wood said: "I think a few of us need it. We'll take that opportunity to freshen up as best we can, but it's really important that we finish the season on a high."

"We owe our fans that and we owe ourselves that. We want to finish and guarantee that top-flight European rugby for next year as well."

During the Leicester match, the visitors conceded a succession of penalties in their own 22 during a period in the second half, but no visiting player was sent to the sin bin, a decision that frustrated Saints' director of rugby Jim Mallinder.

But Wood insisted the reasons for the defeat were closer to home, saying: "I don't make those decisions and I don't envy referees in those positions."

"We'll look at ourselves – there are plenty of things that we weren't good enough at against Leicester and over the course of the season that have left us in this position and left us vulnerable to the odd decision going against you."

■ Northampton Wanderers have found out they will face Saracens Storm in the semi-finals of the Aviva 'A' League at Franklin's Gardens next Monday, with the game kicking off at 7:30pm.

Fightback from injury-hit Northampton not enough in East Midlands derby

Northampton Saints look likely to finish outside the Premiership's top four for the first time in seven years after their 30-24 defeat to Leicester Tigers on Saturday.

The fact that their fiercest rivals were the side that surely finished off their hopes of finishing the top four will hurt Saints fans most as their injury-hit heroes fell just short despite repeatedly fighting back.

Here's what caught Matt Wright's eye on a disappointing evening at Franklin's Gardens.

Man of the match - Harry Thacker
Mike Haywood has shone in the absence of Dylan Hartley for Northampton Saints this season and Leicester showed they also have a talented young hooker to call upon. Starting in place of the injured Tom Youngs, Harry Thacker gave notice his name is one to remember, not least with a stunning individual try.

Moment of the match
Saints had just levelled the match at 10-10 through Teimana Harrison's converted try, but parity was to just two minutes as Luther Burrell played a loose pass in the middle of the park that Vereniki Goneva easily picked off to run in under the posts unopposed.

Moan of the match

Sin-binnings are supposed to punish spoiling tactics, such as dragging down driving mauls, but referee Tim Wigglesworth for some reason didn't apply this logic when the Tigers repeatedly did so in the second half. Saints eventually scored at the end of this passage through George Pisi, but the fact that the Tigers still had a full complement on the pitch aided them thereafter.

Wilder thrilled with champions' display

FOOTBALL

sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

Chris Wilder was delighted by his team's performance in the second half against Crawley as League Two champions Northampton Town made their homecoming a happy one with a 2-1 victory.

This was the Cobblers' first match since they wrapped up the title at Exeter last weekend and after the break it was display fitting of a team that has surged so far in front of everyone else in the division.

Town's players may have felt they were due a win after drawing their last four games and they obliged their adoring public, even if the game did take a little while to get going.

But the outstanding Ricky Holmes and John-Joe O'Toole were to embellish a second-half showing in which they turned on the style on Tuesday night.

Wilder said: "I think everybody should be happy – us coming back to the town as champions and producing a performance, especially in the second half, like that."

"I thought we were outstanding. The professionals that we are, we're a bit disappointed with their goal, but generally on the night the team's performance was really, really good."

"People looked at this game and, after the Bristol Rovers game and all the euphoria after that and getting a result down at Exeter to win the league, were wondering what we were going to produce."

"They've not let me down or let the supporters down with a performance full of energy, full of desire and good football – I thought our football at times was outstanding tonight."

The win was Wilder's 300th as a manager and the landmarks keep on coming for his team in this unforgettable season as this was their 21st league game unbeaten.

It equalled a club record set by the last Cobblers side to win a league title – Graham Carr's vintage 1986/87 team – and Wilder's men could still break another of their records by reaching 100 points this season.

The Cobblers boss insists, however, that his planning doesn't extend any further than Saturday's trip to Yeovil, saying: "I don't want to put any pressure on the players because they've played under pressure all season."

"They just want to win their next game and that's what we'll be looking to do on Saturday."

"We've been a touch disappointed in ourselves with the results that we've had recently, but we've added to the points tally along the way and I think it was really important tonight for us to get a win."

"We've gone and done that and we'll move on to 92 points and if we win on Saturday it sets it up for an exciting finish. There's always something to play for."

Saints chief: Top four out of reach

RUGBY

Director of rugby Jim Mallinder admitted after last Saturday's 30-24 defeat to Leicester Tigers that Northampton Saints' play-off hopes are over, but he was unhappy with some of the officiating during the game.

With the gap between Saints and the fourth-placed Tigers now up to seven points with two games left, Mallinder's pessimism is realistic after such a damaging loss.

Referee Tim Wigglesworth was a late replacement after the original man with the official, Matt Carley, was forced to pull out with an injury and he was to heavily penalise Northampton in the scrum.

There was also a period in the second half where the hosts won a succession of penalties in their opponents' 22, yet Wigglesworth never went to his pocket.

Mallinder said: "We'll keep fighting, but I think realistically that's the top four out of reach this season. I think today probably summed up our season a little bit, just not quite good enough."

"In terms of the referee today, he had a poor game. He was so inconsistent in terms of we don't quite know what's happening in the scrum – it's been like that for the last few weeks, to be honest."

"When you give away seven or eight penalties to one offence – collapsing our maul – then it's got to be a yellow card."

"I know we got a final penalty and we went on to score, but they should have been down to 14 men because they're stopping a part of the game which we could have scored from."

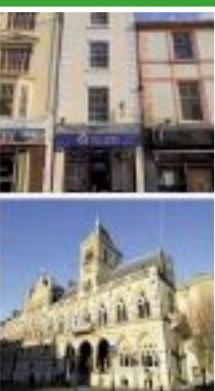

The defeat has left Northampton staring in the face the prospect of finishing outside the Premiership's top four for the first time since the 2008/09 season and Mallinder felt his side gave away soft tries in the first half.

He said: "I've had a quick look at it [their first try] and there seemed to be players on the floor and he just seemed to come through that space and just go through no defence. That was disappointing and then secondly, we break out, we're on the attack and then suddenly we give away an interception."

Christyna Lynch wrote "Today I was having a bad asthma attack as I was walking to the hospital I spotted a taxi of yours dropping someone off. I asked how much it would cost to get me to the hospital he asked whats wrong and I told him and he said no charge. And on the 29th of March I was having a bad morning and the driver was very nice and chatty getting my mind off of it. His cab was K**** and he knocked 2 pounds off of the price because of the bad morning. Well I would have been happy to pay the extra 2 quid but it made my morning. I will definitely use you guys again as you are quick and friendly."

BOUNDS DRIVER HELPS STRANDED TEENAGER GET HOME SAFELY

Bev Halsey wrote "Hi, I wanted to let you know about one of your drivers who went over and above last night. My daughter (18) was out in town with two friends. They had saved enough money through the evening for their taxi home. During the evening they bumped into a boy they knew from school with his mate. They asked if they could come in their taxi too, to split the cost. The Girls agreed as they knew one of the boys. The boys told the driver to go to kingsthorpe, down near Semilong and assured the girls they had the money for the diversion. When they got there the boys got out of the taxi and ran away, leaving the girls stranded with no extra money to pay to get home to moulton. Your driver was cross with the boys and obviously because he had witnessed what they had done was an absolute star. He knew the girls had no more money, but brought them home anyway. After the recent awful murder in Northampton, as a mother, I just wanted to say a massive thank you to him, repay him the money he was willing to forgo for the safety of my daughter and her friends, and make sure you knew what a great man he was to them."

Rachel Simpson wrote "Thank you for providing a safe service to get my children home tonight - it was great service to receive the text messages, take a call from the driver and to know my kids were safely driven home. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend your service again. I would also like you to know that I appreciated the assistance of your phone receptionist when I made the booking this afternoon. She knew I was anxious as it was the first time I had to book a taxi for my kids to travel in alone. She understood my concern and was brilliant at ensuring she explained about the text messages and how you would communicate with me. Truly amazing service. Thank you."
